LIBRARY AND OTHER RELEVANT PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Beatrice and Julio Mario Santo Domingo Director and Librarian, The John Carter Brown Library, Providence, Rhode Island (2013-2021)

- Provided strategic leadership, vision, and operational management of major special collections library and independent research center located on the Brown University campus;
- Served as chief administrator and academic leader for all aspects of Library operations, including international fellowship program, academic programming, digitization and digital engagement, finances and fundraising, technical services, facilities management, acquisitions, and University-Library relations, especially as liaison to Brown faculty and students;
- Managed a $4M annual budget and professional staff of 15-18 FTEs, including a deputy librarian, three professional curators, digital projects team leader, development professionals, administrative and academic programming team, and readers' services and technical services staff;
- Functioned as key liaison and communications lead for extensive network of national and international Library constituencies, including members of the Library's Associates group, current and former research fellows, library professionals (including university librarians as well as directors of international and US-based independent research libraries), and professional associations, including RBMS, the Grolier Club, and the Bibliographical Society of America;
- Worked closely with Library Board of Governors to develop and execute an ambitious and collaborative strategic plan (2016-2021) and renewed mission statement to advance the JCB's strategic priorities, including: enhanced access to the collection through digital technologies; integrative programming for interdisciplinary humanities scholarship; expansion of the Library's communities locally, nationally, and internationally; a reconfiguration of Library resources for greater efficiency; and new forms of stewardship and engagement to expand donor support.
- Served as chief fundraiser and institutional advancement specialist, garnering $5M in philanthropic donations in the period from 2013-2020 and successful solicitations to the NEH, Mellon Foundation, and numerous private foundations;
- Launched a series of new academic programs and initiatives, including an Indigenous Studies Initiative (2014), environmental history collaborations with the Institute at Brown for Environment and Society (2014), an African Americas Initiative (2019), and numerous other collaborations with University centers (including the Center for the Study of Slavery and Justice and the Cogut Institute for the Humanities) and international partners such as the Museo Nacional de Antropología (Mexico) and the Biblioteca Brasileira Mindlin (São Paulo).
- Led major pre-design planning exercise with leading architectural firm (Ann Beha) to reimagine the JCB and more effectively utilize space within the Library;
- Oversaw the creation of a Diversity and Inclusion Action Plan (2020) for the Library with broad engagement from diverse Library constituencies.

Major Gifts Officer, Office of Development & Alumnae Affairs, Barnard College of Columbia University, New York, NY (1994-1996)

- As executive fundraising officer, participated in the well-coordinated stages of a major capital campaign, including: elaboration of a cogent, inspiring, and timely message; identification of potential donors, individuals and institutions; research into annual giving and major gift patterns; cultivation and solicitation of prospects.

Reference Clerk, Government Publications/Maps/Law Library, Sheridan Libraries of the

Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, MD (2001-2003)
– Assisted students and researchers in using the division’s collection in government documents, online legal and statistical resources, international databases, and cartographic collection, including traditional maps as well as ArcGIS software and GPS related materials.

Assistant Grants Manager, The Sierra Club Foundation, San Francisco, CA (1991-1993)
– Responsible for research and writing of large institutional grant proposals ($100K+) to support charitable environmental programs of the Sierra Club;
– Developed initiatives and managed project budgets with representatives from the Charles Stewart Mott Foundation, the Pew Charitable Trusts, the William and Flora Hewlett Foundation, and other philanthropic and environmental organizations, nationally and internationally;
– Trained and educated volunteers and general public in non-profit regulations for 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations and charitable fundraising strategies.

Assistant to Library Business Manager, John D. Rockefeller, Jr. Library, Brown University, Providence RI (1988-89)
– Assisted with collection assessments and acquisitions budgets, staff allocations, and other administrative functions.
